

Text Pairs for Synthesis

A great book to purchase that has many young kids that have or are making an impact in history that students may not have heard about. Each page has one page of text along with a picture. Other text has been located that can be paired for students to use for synthesis. A web link has been provided below each kids name that can be paired with pages from the text. Great for grades 5 and up.

Aisholpan Nurgaiv

<https://asia.nikkei.com/Life-Arts/Life/A-girl-and-her-eagle-help-bridge-Mongolian-ethnic-divisions>

Dylan Mahalingam

<https://www.thextraordinary.org/dylan-mahalingam>

Helen Keller

<https://www.womenshistory.org/education-resources/biographies/helen-keller>

Louis Braille

<https://www.royalblind.org/national-braille-week/about-braille/who-was-louis-braille>

Malala Yousafzai

<https://www.nobelprize.org/prizes/peace/2014/yousafzai/biographical/>

Muzoon Aimellehan

<https://www.unicef.org.uk/celebrity-supporters/muzoon-almellehan/>

Om Prakash Gurjar

<https://www.thextraordinary.org/om-prakash-gurjar>

Ruby Bridges

http://elementary.dmschools.org/uploads/1/3/6/0/13604257/unit_1_inform_l660_walking_tall.pdf

Sylvia Mendez

http://elementary.dmschools.org/uploads/1/3/6/0/13604257/unit_1_inform_l660_walking_tall.pdf

Stevie Wonder

<https://study.com/academy/lesson/stevie-wonder-biography-songs.html>

Thandiwe Chama

<https://kidsrights.org/advocacy/international-childrens-peace-prize/winners/thandiwe-chama/>

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

https://makingmusicfun.net/htm/f_mmf_music_library/hey-kids-meet-wolfgang-amadeus-mozart.php