

Shared Reading

Whole Group Fiction Reading

Second & Third Grade

- Overview of shared reading (whole group reading)
- Building in Close Reading
- Book selection
- Book introduction
- Building vocabulary
- Building in word work
- Strengthening the cueing systems
- Teaching skills and strategies
- Making comprehension strategies visible
- Connecting shared reading to independence
- How to celebrate a book through paragraphing, summarizing, and drama
- Responding to literature
- Evaluating shared reading

Days: 3 days

Genre: Fiction

Materials: Using a variety of different formats of text including basal text

Workshop: Includes theory, demonstration in classrooms, planning based upon gradual release of responsibility, time to practice new learning, and student engagement

714.357.1253